The fo lowing extract from a speech delivered by Hon. A. H. Stephens, before a great Mass Meeting of the Democrats in Georgia, is eminently worthy of profound consideration:

Mr. Stephens said he wanted the people to hear hawords and remember them. He came to speak not to their pas-ions, but to their reason—not to their hearts but to their heads. He had confidence in the people and their capacity to govern themselves. They needed no secret dictators; and he had no fears for the result when he saw them, as then, feeling and interest in public affairs, and determined to examine into them. The question was merely this. Were they willing to live under the Constitution of their fathers, er did they want another? We have formerly differed about measures, but now the difference was about a form of Government. The know-nothings propose to substitute their su-preme council for the present Government, and their Constitution for the Constitution of the country. Let the people choose. Which would they have-the Constitution of their Fathers, or that of the know-nothing Councils? That was the real question. He had the know-nothing Constitution in his hand. It was genuine, and he knew it. It declared that the Supreme National Council should "decide all matters appertaining to National politics," that it should have power to "tax," and "power to punish," without limitation or restriction. This was more power than was claimed for Congress.

Our forefathers guarded dur liberty with checks and balances. It mide the Senate a check upon the House—the President a check upon the Senate, and the Jucic ary a check upon the President. But this party claimed all these power for its secret National Council alone. Here was power to decide our National politics-power to tax and to punish-power over the sword over the purse -in short, all the great powers of government, in the hands of a few men, and men not cho-sen by the people at that. What then was the use of our Consitution or of our government? This party made another Constitution and Government for us. Would a freeman acknowledge their right to tax him? To punish him? To decide all political ques tions for him? What was the question? Did choose between them. They must say whether they wanted another form of Government. He held in his hand the two Constitutions .-The one made by our fathers, the other by the know nothings. Choose ye this day which of the two ye will have.

SOUND ARGUMENT.

The following incident was related by the Rev. preservon, of Mississippi, in the course of his speech at the first anniversary of the Southern Aid Society in New York:

On one occasion, and that not very long ago, nor five hundred miles from this city, a young ministerial brother whose acquaintance I had made, and with whom I had spent several very pleasant evenings in social inter course, interchanging opinions and Expe riences North and South, walking across the floor, and as it seemed, in thoughtful mood, his brow knitted, and his countenance sad and cast down. Suddenly, as if unable to longer repress his feelings, he turned round and said:

"Oh; Mr. Newton, I feel so bad!" "Why,' said I, somewhat surprised, "what is the matter?"

Still wringing his hands in apparent agony,

"Oh, sir, I am thinking about the poor alaves!

My surprise and alarm, which were but for onl a moment, gave place almost immediate-Oh, yes, I think I know how to sympathize with you, I feel bad, too, very bad. I have felt so ever since I came North, and The poor, wretched, down trodden, beastly looking objects that I have seen, in the shape of human beings, begging and bending about your stneets, and hovelled away in the squallid dens of your alleys. And especially your free negroes; O, what—" A downright hearty laugh from my minis. terial friend showed me that I was understood from should be within the limits, never "Now, my good friend, why do you not go South and preach to us and our poor negroes?"

"Why, because you will not let me!" "Won't lel you-why, yes we will. We want all we can get." "But if I go South to preach, you will hang "Not if you preach the Gospel of Christ," said I; "and if you should come there to be accursed; and we know it is written, "Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree." BREVITY AND CANDOR, - General Simpson's despatch announcing the attack on Schastopol. is short but not sweet. It is in these words: "The French attacked Malakoff, and we attacked the Redan; they succeeded, we failed. This is vigorous and expressive, and hides nothing and apologizes for nothing.

KNOW-NOTHING PROFESSIONS AND PRAC TICES .- The Hampden (Mass.) Statesman says of the Know Nothing council at Thorndike, "The president bought a Congregational church at auction and sold it to the Catholics, making $400 by the operation; another obtained the office of deputy sheriff: and one, the most fortunate of all, married a pretty Irish Catholic girl!"

"THE FATHER OF SAM."-At a meeting of the Know Nothings in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on Friday night, the 5th inst., the notorious Ned Buntline was introduced The representatives of the States and of to the meeting as the "Father of Sam," and the people should ever remember that L. The following remarks are too good to be throw aside, without, a passing notice. They are rue to the letter, and sintable to all localities. We are of opinion that the welkest capacity cannot fail to understand them.

It is asbuishing what exalted notions some persons have of their own import ance. They seem to imagine that they are altogether necessary to the onward roll of our livle world, and that if, by any means, they got shoved out of the way, the screws would be so loose that the old machine would no longer hold together; and of course, if such important personages only say to the editor "stop my paper," the whole establishment must go to pot istanter. CLAY'S OPINION OF EMIGRATION .-The honest, partient and industrious German readily unites with our people, stablishes himself upon some of our fat ands, fils capacions barns, and enjoys in ranguility the abundant fruits which his turles of life interporates from self without discrity in our society. But of all forcigners, none amalgamate themselves so quickly with our people as the natives of the "Emerald Isle." In some of the visions that have passed through my imagination I have supposed that Ireland was originally a part and parcel of this continent and that by some extraordinary convulsion of nature' it was torn from America, and drifting across the ocean it was placed in the unfortunate vicinity of Great Britain. The same generous host-Kentucky has been sometimes called the Ireland of America. And I have no doubt that if the current of immigration were reversed and sent from America upon the shores of Europe instead of being form Europe to America, every American emigrant to Ireland would there find a hearty welcome and a happy home.

THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINA-TION OF LOUIS NAPOLEON.

The letter to the New York Courier from Paris gives an important item of news relative to the late attempt to take the life of Louis Napoleon. It says:

"A cente garde fired upon the Emperor in one of the halls of the palace of St. Cloud, and wounded him slightly on the point of the shoulder. An inch lower "The assassin was immediately arrested and placed au secret. Nevertheless, I am informed that it is known that he was bribed with 300,000 frances ($60, as the clerk has entered a hundred or (000) to commit the crime by the Orleanists. These particulars will not reach the public for yet a long time, as the investigation ordered is carried on with the utmost secrecy."

THE PRINCE GEORGE TRAGEDY. We learn from the Petersburg Express, the strange death of Mrs. Wm Gill and infant, and the sickness of another child, all under very suspicious circumstances, much exciement in the above vicinity and many suspected that Mrs. Gill had for Gill, and on Sunday last, his body was discovered in the woods about three quarters of a mile from his residence. It was very much disfigured, as the eyes and nose had been eaten out by the buzzards, and it would not have been recognized only for the clothing. No marks of violence were perceptible on the body, but from the strange fact of the deaths taking place almost simultaneously, it is supposed that the husband had adminis tered poison to his family and finally himself. The little son of Gill is still in a dying condition, also: An inquest was I eld and the body of Gill was buried in the woods where found. The whole matter has caused an intense excitement in the neighborhood, and all vated for ceturies, was about double that are of opinion that it was he who was the author of so terrible a tragedy.

There is another little association with the Crimea that to us Americans is interesting. One John Smith, the John Smith, the adventurous captain of Virginia, was also a warrior against the Turks or Tartars. He cut off several Moslem turbans with heads inside of them, but was unluckily captured and sold as a slave. He was carried up the Straits of Kertch and into the sea of Azof. Somewhere in the Crimea or thereabouts his captuity ceased. He killed his master, seized his horse and clothes, and rode for Whole No. 125 dear life and the nearest Russian post, at that time nearly synonymous ideas. He was kindly received and passed along from one Muscovite station to another, back to friends and civilization. With every step a new instalment of gratitude became due from him, which he duly discharged through his heirs and assigns; for he founded Virginia. Virginia one day, with her sister colonies, became the United States of America. England was at war with Erance and her own revolted colonies. The house of Bourbon and the house of Gulph had no leisuse to look eastward. In fact, there was not an "Eastern question" at all. Catherine of the say stepped in with her waste, and the Crimen was hers. France came to the rescue only too late. English country gentlemen were too full of the Middlesex election and the American war, the "nopopery" riots and national debt to think much of the schemes of the Czarina. Their Indian empire was just beginning, and no Napoleon had taught them the value of pashalik of Egypt to the overland route to the East. The fall of the Crimea was but the annexation of a barren Khanet, a revolted State of Turitality, the same careless and uncalcuting key. HOW TO MAKE ONE FARM EQU. AL TO THREE.

In a recent address by G. T. Stewart, Esq., before the Ohio Agricultural Society, he thus speaks on this subject:

"Many farmers are rapidly destroying the productiveness of their farms by shall low work. As they find that their cre are diminishing, they only think of extending their acres of surface, as if they supposed their title deeds only gave them will take those deeds; study their mean ng, and apply the lesson to their fields, they will soon realize in three-fold crops the fact that the law has given them three farms where they supposed they only on account of the sudden disappearance had one; in other words, that the subsoil, of the husband Wm. Gill. A created brought up and combined with the top soil, and enriched with the atmospheric died from violence. Search was made influences, and those other elements which agricultural science will teach them to apply to their grounds, will increase three-fold the measure of its productiveness.

"To show to what extent the fertility of the soil may be increased, I refer to a statement in the last Patent Office Report. In the year 1850, there were nine competitors for the premium corn crops of Kentucky, each of whom cultivated ten acres. Their average crop was about 122 bushels to the acre. At that time, the average crop of wheat per acre in the harvest of Great Britain, on the soil cultiproduced on the virgin soil of Ohio. Why is this? Simply because British farmers are educated men and apply work wisly. They pay back to the earth what they borrow; they endevor by every means in were giants and ate men's flesh, and from their power to enrich their ground, and instead of doubling their acres, would labor to double their crops, they would find it a vast saving of time and soil, and an increase of profits.

Many of them never think of digging ten inches into the soil, unless they have dreamed about a crock of gold hidden in the earth; but if they would set about the work of digging in earnest, every man would find his crock of gold without the aid of dreams or divination.

We have great advantage over British farmers in the fact that our farmers nearly all hold the lands which they cultivate in free simple, while in England they are chiefly tenants hiring the land of the proprietors, besides heavy taxes to the government. Taxes here are comparatively light, and our farmers are their landlords. Hence they have been able to pay three-fold wages for labor to those in Europe, and the cost of transportation. and yet undersell the British farmers in their own market-"

From the Cleveland Herald, of Oct. 17. MISSING ÆRONAUT.

It makes one shudder to think of the probable fate of Mr. Winchester, who went up in a balloon from Norwalk, Huron County, Ohio. on the 2d instant. Over two weeks have elapsed, and no tidings have as yet reached his family at Milan of his fate. Whether frozen to death in upper air and thus dashed to earth, or buried in the deep bosom of the Lake, no word has come to tell. While we wonder at his temerity we must pity his probably sad fate. Yet there is hope still, as the last seen of him his airy vessel was wafted towards the north sufficiently inflated, as we are told by the Norwalk papers, for a voyage of from two to three days. May be he landed in Canada, so far from railroads and telegraphs as to prevent tidings yet reaching his home. It is but a hope, however. The Norwalk "Refletor" says:

"It is generally believed here that he is lost. As to the precise manner, if so, there are various opinions. Many suppose that he m, y have ascended so high that he became insensible and perished from cold. His fate, whatever it may be, is a matter of speculation. We conversed with a gentleman from Milan, a few days since, who told us that Mr. W. had, for some time past, manifested a year free, This offer is made to induce our strong desire for ballooning, and that he had friends to exert themselves in circulating the expressed his intention of ascending higher and to make a longer æriat voyage than any other gronaut had ever accomplished. We are told he took only twenty-five pounds of ballast with him, which was about half as much as he took when he made his ascent from Milan a short time previous."

The Norwalk "Experiment" expresses a hope that the press every where, and especially cast of us, will speak of the ascension, and if it should be that he has landed safely, information may be sent to his family in Milan. and in the woods"-may not meet with the overthrow of republican principles and the republican party in the coming Presidential election was not in the least improbable. The popular wave upon whose winding crest Gen. Pierce was borne into office seemed strangely receding. Politician after politician had gotten discontented. State after State had fallen from our support. Every element of agitation, dissension, and discord which necessas rily exist in all parties had fused into the general opposition to the administration an its truly democratic policy; while apathy and languor brooded, like a pall over the few who stood faithful and steadfast. The great North West where Gen. Scott had not received a single electoral vote wheeled against us, and the influence of Cass, Douglass, Bright and others was scarcely sufficient to moderate the good, fat rates. storm-as to subduing it, that was an impossibility. In the North the same lamentable state of things existed-even the granite democracy of New Hampshire shook and trembled. In the middle States an equally alarming prospect presented itself to the patriot. The great State of New York threw its Brennus sword into the scale. Pennsylvania—the key stone of the wrole Union, and so with the smaller States of that section. In the whole north, northwestern, and middle States there scarcely seemed a refuge left for strug gling though conquered patriotism. The deluge had swept everything, and it seemed doubtful whether or not there could be found a Mount Ararat on which the ark of the Constftution could find a resting place. Such was the gloomy aspect of the skies but a few months since. Now every thing is changed. Each election that takes place exhibits the rcturn of the people to that party and those principles which are, and ever have been the only reliable guardians of the country's honer and prosperity. Pennsylvania. New Jersey, Virginia, Tennessee, Alabama and others are standing true. The reaction against Know Nothingism seems as strong as the delusion which first sustained it. Popular intelligence and popular honesty have triumphed over the ignoble prejudices which constitute the creed of the late Know Nothing party. The capacity of the people to govern themselves has been vindicated. The great fact proven so often before has been again established that the people see in democratic principles the true, real, and genuine development of the idea upon which our institutions are based .-Proscription and intolerance have been driven back to their caves. Oath-bound secret

The hopes of traitors have been blasted, the fears of patriots dissipated. The old ship still rides the subdued waves in triumph and safes ty. There is no probability that her management will be confined to other hands than those which are accustomed to guide and direct her. The lost field has been regained, and the Presidential election of 1856 will open with every advantage upon the side of the democracy. If every thing a few months back was dark, we can now say, that every thing is bright an I cheering.

political societies have been scourged back into their dens of secret shame.

While the present state of things is so cheering it should not be forgotton, that as it was produced by harmony, so, by dissension it can be lost. Harmony, concession, and combined effort are as necessary to preserve power as to win it-as essential to administration as to the struggle. The great Presidential battle is too near at hand for any true democrat to think of any thing but the cherished principles of the party; and the harmony of its action. Everything like "stocking the cards" for the Presidential nomination should be frowned down. All scheeming and intrigueing should be denounced. Politicians should be taught by the people that the making of a President is their business, and that they prefer attending to it at their own time and in their own way, and that they

SALISBURY.

MR. H. HOGAN HELPER, is our general traveling agent and is authorized to receive subsriptions to the Republican Banner, and to receipt for the same.

CITY AGENCIES -D. M. ZIMMERMAN. Esq. Philadelphia, and W. S. LAWTON &Co., of parleston, are our authorized Agents for those ities, and are empowered to receive Subscripons and to contract for Advertisements for the REPUBLICAN BANNER.

The Survey of the Western Road has commenced under the supervision of Mr. Turner, We hope soon to be able to announce that it has been completed, and the contracts let out the whole length of the road.

To our friends .- Any person sending us five new subscribers, with the cash. ($10) shail receive the Republican Banner one "BANNER." Send on the names and we will furnish you with a good family paper.

It says: "In Ireland common field hands are receiving from $1 to $1,25 per day. There is a wonderful shortness of supply of laborers, resulting from the war. attendant upon hostilities is estimated at five hundred thousand persons, capable of performing military duty." Of course this number is taken from the industrial pursuits, which will have to be supplied, the scarcity of the laborers increases the pay from half-starving to compelled to build it; an utter impossibility.

Our mail facilities are in an awful "fix"; this time. Our subscribers supplied at New Institute, Iredell County, are loud in their complaints that the Banner does not reach that office regularly. We have used every exertion in our power to remedy this, but all has proven unavailing. The Banner is mailed egularly here every Tuesday evening in readiof more complaints at this office than any other. Why is this? The mail leaves here every Wednesday morning directly by the above place, and why there should be any failures we cannot discover.

'Washburn's Great Indian Amphitheatre and Circus" will be in Salisbury on the 9th and 10th of November. This company is spoken of very highly by some of the Northern and Southern papers, as the following which we take from the Boston Chronicle will show: AS WE EXPECTED .- Washburn's Amphitheatre and Circus met with a most decided success, yesterday, on the Public Garden, for it is indeed a most superior company. The wild appearance and exciting perform ances of the Indians were witnessed with the greatest interest and delight, while the graceful and wonderful feats of the Aymars and others of the equestrians, were looked upon with admiration and wonder. We can heartily recommend this establishment to the attention and patronage of our readers and all

We are sorry that our enterprising townsnan, Mr. Fisher, has resigned the Directorship of the Western N. C. Rail Road. His services in behalf of this road will never be forgotten by its friends, and while his resignation and the reasons assigned will, we fear, tend to throw cold water on the speedy completion of this great work, we hope to see all things righted in due time; and while all will be re joiced that all in his power will be exerted in furtherance of the work, they will still regret the charter so liberally granted by the Repthat he has seen it necessary, consistently with his course in the last Legislature, and as a Stockholder, to resign and thereby losing his valuable services as a Director.

WESTERN EXTENSION.

We regret to notice the disposition among some to retard the progress of this work, unintentionally doubtless, on account, they say, of a violation of the charter. In the first place, there never was a charter the letter of which was fully obeyed, and while the Board of Directors did, for the interest of the State and the Stockholders, depart from the letter of the Charter, still the spirit of the Charter has been fully carried out. Supposing there was money sufficient subscribed to have built and equipped the road thoroughly to some point between the towns of Newton and Morgapton there would have been a serious telay in the progress of the road, arising from the fact that the county of Burke with commendable liberality, has subscribed all that it is in her power, and could not therefore have taken along, and we wish the good citizens of pany, and besides instead of being ermitted have to pay out the cash which would be a serious injury to many of the stockholders and which enabled them to subscribe sliberally. It is the opinion of many, that the $1,200,000 subscribed, is sufficient to grade de road between this place and Morganton and equip it for more than half the distance, the State then most assuredly, will not be so blind to her own inter st as to refuse the necessaryhid to equip it throughout, whereas on the other hand, had the road been built to some print short of Morganton, and all the money expended, $200,000 or $300,000 would have to be subscribed for the further prosecution of the road before the State, according to the letter of the The lowest estimate of the destruction of life | Charter, would have subscribed any thing; a great delay would here ensue in raising the required amount, as the county of Burke has subscribed all that she is able to do, and the road st'll without the county, and to have it completed to Morganton she would have been

The tenor of an article on the Western Extension, which appears in the last Greens borough Patriot, clearly points of the "local habitation" of Watauga, and well nigh his that the Board of Directors have located the road by the town of Newton. His was the first expression of "dissatisfaction" we have pletion. heard emanating "W st of Salisbury" unless from those counties that did little or nothing to secure the road in their respective counties. Watauga thinks that the failure of the scheme is a fixed fact -a certainty, because of its lo cation; why, we cannot conceive. The county of Catawba is most certainly entitled to the road running through it, as her citizens were the first to take hold of the scheme, the first to raise her quota of subscription to secure the

That the prospects of success look gloomy only in the imagination of disappointed Watauga." The prospects are bright and brightening-the engineer is at work-soon the contracts will be let out, and this town will quickly be in communication with the Eden of North Carolina:

Mr. Fisher's Letter.

Salisbury, October 10, 1855. J. BRUNER, Esq., Ed. Carolina Watchman, SIR:-Your paper of to-day contains a correct report of the first meeting of the Board of Directors of the Western N.C. R. R. Co., so far as my knowledge of the same extends .-May I ask of you the favor to publish the enclosed letter and resolutions, as embodying my reasons for resigning my position as a Director for the State in the Board?

I think it not strange that you should remark with surprise, on resignations of positions which, although far more "burdens" of responsibility, than "posts of honor," are nevertheless such offices of trust as no man has a right to desert without reason-therefore, I desire, in justice to myself, to let it be understood, that my own "shifting" of this burden was not for my convenience. As respects Judge Ellis, while writing, it is proper enough for me to say in his absence, that he was elected a Director, not being present himself, and resigned because, as his letter expressed, of his inability to attend the first meeting of the Board, when he ascertained have not delegated it to any set, or clique, or, the remedy and any set, or clique, or, the friends of any anxious aspirant.

I do not feel willing to have my course misunderstood, or to be subjected to censure for a seeming default of duty to all interests involved-and of service in behalf of the State towards this work, which has heretofore, in its beginning and its progress, engaged so much of my earnest and anxious labor.

I desire to add also-that as respects the progress of the work, according to the resolu tions, my objection was to their violation of resentatives of the people of North Carolina in the last General Assembly.

I deny that any man in Burke County, from whence this movement comes, is more earnestly disirous of seeing this Road extended as soon as possible to Morganton, than I am,and more, I deny that any man in that County has labored more to effect this: -but rather would I see this grand scheme fail, and the charter even be lost,-looking only with hope ful trust to the future,-than see one perversion of the Charter, or one word of the plighted faith of the men of Western North Carolina violated.

Very respectfully yours,

CHARLES F. FISHER. Resolutions passed by the Board of Directors. Resolved, That the Chief Engineer be ins structed to survey a route for the Western N. C. Road, from the town of Salisbury to the town of Morganton, in Burke County, on the most ellgible line, and that they locate said Road through the County towns of Statesville and Newton.

Resolved, That so soon as said Road is located by the Engineers, that the contracts along the entire route from Salisbury to Morganton be let out, and that the Stockholders be preferred in the granting of contracts where the same guaranties are given for the completion of the contracts within the time required by the rule adopted by the Board on

RESOLVED, That the President be instructed to cause to be made a survey over the country, beginning at the Town of Salisbury, and terminating at Morganton, with a view of ascertaining the best ground for the location of the Road between these points,-and that this survey be carefully directed to determine the practicability of locating the Road by or near each County seat intermediate between the two points named. RESOLVED, That in respect to the location and distance of Road to be put under contract for the first division, the same shall be determined hereafter, whenever the survey may be completed as above named, and the Report of the Chief Engineer is made to this Boardand that the distance said first division shall be put under contract, must of necessity be determined under the terms of the Charter by the said Report and estimates, according to from this State. - Charleston Standard the letter of the Charter, which requires that "The Company shall have completed, equipand freight, the first division of said road, and all the necessary ware houses, water stations and buildings" to the extent of the capital stock subscribed.

Letter of Resignation: SALISBURY, October 5, 1855. To the President and Directors of the Western N. C. R. R. Co.:

I tender to you my resignation of the office f Director in this Company, to take effect his day, and ask that the same be accepted. However much I may regret the necessity which impels me to this course, it is in my opinion such as leaves me no discretion to act am required to regard, and of self-respect, for the pledges made publicly as a representative in the General Assembly, and privately as a man of Western North Carolina, assuming to answer for her people, as I deemed myself aucharacter and conduct, I cannot longer act in the Board after the adoption of the Resolution this morning-which, in my view, has determined a course of action in the inception of this great and important work, in direct conravention of the terms of the charter.

This expression might be regarded a strong one, as that of an individual member, set forth that I claim the right to make it from my knowledge of what was clearly, and most emphatically declared and accepted as the meanng of the charter, by those who framed, explained and enacted it in the last General As-

Aside from the question whether I could as one of the State's Representatives in the Board continue to act in this office longer than my judgement regards the action of the body to be lawful, (a matter of individual opinion entirely) it is, in my apprehension, very clear; that I cannot do so, when this action is in direct opposition to the most emphatic and solemn pledges made personally, in assurance that this very course would not be adopted,as the opponents of the measure charged

I can now only regret that, in what seems to have been over much zeal for the great scheme in question, and overmuch confidence in assuming to speak, I was ever led to join in makin these pledges.

It was for you to judge whether they were wisely made, and whether I have any reason to ask that they be observed. It is for me to determine, as I am accustomed to do, without regard to opinions or consequences, what is in my course of duty. I can only repeat my sincere regret for the necessity which impels me to this course, and my earnest hope that this great work may progress hapily and successfully. I can never fail to render freely, whatever aid is in my ability, to its prosecution. I have the honor to be very respectfully, your obedient servant, CHARLES F. FISHER.

KNOW NOTHINGISM AND MASONRY. We cannot forbear inserting the following striking contrasts between Know-nothings and Free Masons, drawn with such life-like fidelity by John W. Forney, in a late address on religious intolerance and political proscription delivered at Lancaster, Pa:

"And as if to crown this act of brazen inconsistency, we hear the followers of these societies, the foes of Masonry a few yours ago, openly justifying their course by comparing their organization with the ancient and honorable fraturnity of Masons! Could delusion and deceit any further go? It is a vain and hopeless task, however, to attempt to reconcile the existence of Christain proscription with that of the fraternity of Masons. The latter is purely and exclusively benevolent .-It gathers under its ægis men of every race and clime, and enforces the holy obligations of friendship in very part of the civilized world. B t where are the trophies of Know Nothing benevolence and charity? Where are the widows and orphans it has relieved from misery and want? Shall we go to the expelled families of Louisville? To the Hagars driven with curses into the wilderness with their proscribed children? to the Rachels who morn and will not be comforted?'

Peas for Stock .- It is the opinion of the ditors of the Soil of the South that peas are dangerous for stock in lime land, but harmless on sandy soils. The experience of other intelligent farmers, who have tried the experiment, is confirmatory of this opinion. There had been some further skirmish but without decided advantage to either party. The Russians still occupy northern Se asopol, and are fortifying it in great strength. The English money market is much excited, and more stringent. The subject of the suspension of the banks of France and Englaud is still agitated, and absorbs preat attention. Nothing definite is yet known as to what will be eventually done. The preponlerance of sentiment is that a suspension may finally take place. In financial circles there is great excitement. TO THE PATRONS OF PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

OWING to the large amount of Counterfeit Pain Killer put up and sold as genuine by anprincipled men, we have been obliged to resort to very expensive measures to protect ourselves pecuniarily, and the public from great injury by buying and using their worthless counterfeits. The comparative plain and simple style in which our Pain Killer has been put up, has made it very easy for those disposed to imitate it very successfully, as far as its external appearance, in style of bottle, label and color of the article; but we need not say that the compound is a miserable filthy production and calculated to do great injury to those who might use it with the confidence that they have been accustomed to use the genuine Pain Killer. Parties whose business it is to counterfeit valuable preparations do it in such a secret manner that it is almost useless to attempt to punish them by legal measures as it is difficult, and we might say impossible to bring the proof home to

Considering the great difficulty in protecting ourselves and the public by prosecuting parties, we have been to a very great expense in getting up a finely executed

STEEL ENGRAVED LABEL, for our bottles. We also attach to our bottles a Steel Engraved Note of Hand which we issue as our obligation, and to counterfeit which is held to be forgery by the laws of the United States, and which parties will not dare attempt to do. The great expense attending the getting up and printing of these labels will prevent the attempt to counterfeit; thus securing to the public that the article they purchase is the genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer, manufactured by Perry Davis & Son, Sole Proprietors. The Pain Killer will be put in a new style of panel bottle with the words Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, blown in the glass. We have discontinued the use of the 374 cent bottles and now put up only four sizes viz: 121 25, 50 cts. and $1 00 per

We have also a very fine Engraving on Stone for the Box labels specifying the contents of the box where and by whom manufactured &c. We have also added to our Pamphlet of directions and certificates a very beautifully finished presenting on the first page a very excellent likeness of Perry Davis the original inventor of the P in Killer. The bottle labels and one label on each box has also a correct likeness of Perry Davis which it will be impossible to counterfeit it successfully. We have been to this expense that the pubgetting the genuine article when they buy a bot-tle as above described. To those who have so tle as above described. To those who have so long used and proved the mirits of our article we would say that we shall continue to prepare our Pain Killer of the best and purest materials and that it shall be every way worthy of their appro bation as a family medicine.

From the Knickerbocker Magazine. Gaiter Boots. BY ROBERT RATTLEBRAIN, A. M.

> O dainty foot! O gaiter boot! To pie:y you're shocking; I only know Of one thing worse, And that's a snow white stocking.

So neat and clean, Together seen. E'en stoics must agree To you to vote What Gray once wrote, A handsome L-E-G.

The lasting theme Of midnight dream, The very soul of song; Man wants you little Here below, And never wants you leng.

By Plato ne'er Sent tripping here; By Pluto rather given, To lead poor man (An easy plan)
To any place but heaven.

There's magic now About a woman's foot, And cunning was The wizard hand That made a gaiter boot.

For while the knave The gaiters gave To mortals to ensnare them. Mankind he hoaxed, And even coaxed The angels down to wear them.

PERSIAN LITERATURE. - The following beautiful lines are translated from a Persian poet. A correspondent of the Transcript says: "It is hard, indeed, to tell whether the poetry, the humanity, ot the religion in the verses strikes one most:"

I saw some handfuls of the rose in bloom, With bands of grass suspended from a dome. Isaid-"What means this worthless grass, that Should in the rose's fairy circle sit?" Then wept the grass, and said-"Be still and

The kind their old associates ne'er forego Mine is no beauty, hue, or fragrance, true! But in the garden of my Lord I grew!"

From the Northern Farmer. DEAINING AND IMPROVING LANDS.

I well know that much has been written on this subject, and many farmers have profited by its advantages; but so long as there is a piece of unreclaimed land capable of being ren lered valuable by draining, so long is the subject worthy of being brought before the

Some six years ago there was on my father's farm a piece of land nearly worthless, yielding only a light crop of grass of an inferior quali Part of it was very stony, and the rest a blue clay, impervious to water and almost so to the plow. It was broken up and thoroughly drained, thus making a convenient depository for the stones, which were used to lay e drain on the bottom, and then filled to within eight or eight or ten inches of the surface with the small ones, and covered with earth. After cropping it for a few years, and manuring lightly, it was seeded with timothy, and for the three years past, it has yielded about three tons of good hav to the acre, each season, at the first crop, and a neavy crop of feed after it. The whole improvement has

THE fourth session under the direction of the subscriber, will open on the 1st of October next and continue five months. The number of pupils entered last session was 89,-19 increase on the session before. Not a death has occured among the pupils during the three sessions in which we have had charge. There have been but two or three cases of even slightly serious sickness. Few schools, we believe, can say as much, in this respect. We hope to have some apparatus, and other improved facilities for imparting instruction next session.

Eighteen or twenty boarders can be accommodated in the family of the principal. Terms will continue as heretotore, viz: Board and tuition per session of five months including washing, fuel and lights, $67 50

The great Southern Weekly!

THE SPECTATOR WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.

FAMILY JOURNAL OF LITERATURE AND NEWS FOR SOUTHERN READERS.

THE South has too long been dependent upon the northern cities for its periodical literature. The weekly newspapers of Boston New York, and Philadelphia, have swept like a flood over that part of the nation south of Mason and Doxon's Line, many of them carrying with them some of the prejudices of abolitionism; and inculcating, to a greater or less extent, doctrines injurious to southern institutions. This dependence of the mass of southern readers should be thrown off-and it is believed would have been long ago, if there had been facilities in the South belonging to the Estate of Frederick Mowery, for the publication of first class literary papers. THE SPECTATOR. Is published by a gentleman who has long been connected with some of the southern dailies, that of a high-toned weekly paper OF SOUTHERN INTEREST AND CHARACTER.

The general plan of the paper is as follows; It has eight pages; three of which are filled with the best articles on Literature, Science, and the Arts; one to the editor's comments upon pass ing themes; one to general news, foreign and domestic; one to the interests of the Farmerthe information on this page will be mainly derived from the Agricultural Bureau of the U. AYER'S PILLS,

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases — Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c. &c. Indeed, lery few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and much sickness and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Feverish symptoms, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which load the hearses all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing sors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing any thing hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the many eminent gentlemen who have testified in favor of these Pills, we may mention:

DR. A. A. HAYES, Analytical Chemist, of Boston, and State Assayer of Massachusetts, whose high professional character is endorsed by the

HON. EDWARD EVERETT, Senator of the U. S.

ROBERT C. WINTHROP, Ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ROBERT C. WINTHROP, Ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ABBOTT LAWRENCE, Minister Plen. to England.

† JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Cath. Bishop of Boston. Also, Dr. J. R. CHILTON, Practical Chemist, of New York City, endorsed by Hon. W. L. Marcy, Secretary of State.

WM. B. ASTOR, the richest man in America.

S. LELAND & Co., Propr's of the Metropolitan Hotel and others.

Hotel, and others.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred certificates, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the experience of eminent public men is found in facir effects upon trial.

These Pills the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical and the following that of the present state of medical and the following the state of the present state of medical and the following the state of the present state of medical and the following the state of the present state of medical and the following the state of the present state of medical and the state of the present state of medical and the state of the present state of the pres most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, extracted by chemic J process in a state of purity, and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This m such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimations and invited marking by this case highly monious and injurious qualities, by this each indi-ridual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved more purely remedial, and the Pills a surer, more powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he could not properly judge of a remedy virtues. supplied the accurate Formulæ by which both my rectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British Amer-

Practitioners in the United States and British American Provinces. If, however, there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known!

Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are will-ing to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial. They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions, see wrapper on the Box.

From the Northern Farmer. DEAINING AND IMPROVING LANDS.

I well know that much has been written on this subject, and many farmers have profited by its advantages; but so long as there is a piece of unreclaimed land capable of being ren lered valuable by draining, so long is the subject worthy of being brought before the

Some six years ago there was on my father's farm a piece of land nearly worthless, yielding only a light crop of grass of an inferior quali ty. Part of it was very stony, and the rest a blue clay, impervious to water and almost so to the plow. It was broken up and thoroughly drained, thus making a convenient depository for the stones, which were used to lay e drain on the bottom, and then filled to within eight or eight or ten inches of the surface with the small ones, and covered with earth. After cropping it for a few years, and manuring lightly, it was seeded with timothy, and for the three years past, it has yielded about three tons of good hay to the acre, each season, at the first crop, and a neavy crop of feed after it. The whole improvement has resulted from underdraining.

Such work is generally best done in August or Sedtember, when other business is less pressing, and the ground in good condition to be worked.

THE fourth session under the direction of the subscriber, will' open on the 1st of October next and continue five months. The number of pupils entered last session was 89,-19 increase on the session before. Not a death has occured among the pupils during the three sessions in which we have had charge. There have been but two or three cases of even slightly serious sickness. Few schools, we believe, can say as much, in this respect. We hope to have some apparatus, and other improved facilities for imparting instruction next session.

Eighteen or twenty boarders can be accommodated in the family of the principal. Terms will continue as hereto'ore, viz:

Board and tuition per session of five months including washing, fuel and lighte, Music on Piano, Use of Instrument, 2 50

Guitar, Pencil drawing or water color painting, 10 00 Oil painting, French language 10 00 Latin and Greek with other studies.

For day pupils the prices will yary from $8 to For fuel and other contingencies 50 cts each, Pupils will be charged for board or tuition from the time of entrance until the end of the session; but no deduction made after entrance,

The great Southern Weekly! THE SPECTATOR

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.

FAMILY JOURNAL OF LITERATURE AND NEWS

FOR SOUTHERN READERS. THE South has too long been dependent upon the northern cities for its periodical iterature. The weekly newspapers of Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, have swept like a flood over that part of the nation south of Mason and Dixon's Line, many of them carrying with them some of the prejudices of abolitionism; and inculcating, to a greater or less extent, doctrines injurious to southern institutions. This depen-dence of the mass of southern readers should be thrown off-and it is believed would have been long ago, if there had been facilities in the South for the publication of first class literary papers. AYER'S PILLS.

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases — Costiveness, Indi-A cure of all Bilious diseases — Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c. &c. Indeed, tery few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and much sickness and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Feverish symptoms, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which load the hearses all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing sors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing any thing hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the many eminent gentlemen who have testified in favor of these Pills, we may mention:

DR. A. A. HAYES, Analytical Chemist, of Boston, and State Assayer of Massachusetts, whose high professional character is endorsed by the

HON. EDWARD EVERETT, Senator of the U. S.

ROBERT C. WINTHROP, Ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives. of Representatives.

ABBOTT LAWRENCE, Minister Plen. to England.

+ JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Cath. Bishop of Boston. Also, Dr. J. R. CHILTON, Practical Chemist, of New York City, endorsed by Hox. W. L. Marcy, Secretary of State.
WM. B. Astor, the richest man in America.
S. Leland & Co., Propr's of the Metropolitan

Hotel, and others.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred certificates, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the experience of eminent public men is found in their effects upon trial.

These Pills the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, extracted by chemic. I process in a state of purity, and combined together m such a manner as to insure the best results. This m such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acri monious and injurious qualities, by this each indi-idual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is proved more purely remedial, and the Pills a surer, more powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he could not properly judge of a supplied the accurate Formulæ by which both my rectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British American Provinces. If, however, there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known!
Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are will-ing to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any equatity.
